FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Jose, CA –February 1, 2010 Attorney Michael W. Stebbins joined Silicon Valley Law Group as Of Counsel in the areas of employment, intellectual property and commercial litigation . He has extensive experience in disputes involving trade secret theft, employee solicitation, technology licensing, IP infringement, false advertising, earn-out issues, unfair competition, breach of fiduciary duty, trade libel, harassment, discrimination, wage and hour issues, wrongful termination and construction. A major portion of his practice also involves a full range of employment counseling services to management and executives, including the creation of employment-related agreements and documentation, as well as investigations of employee misconduct.

“We’re thrilled to have Michael and his employment and tech-focused litigation experience on board”, says Myron Brody, Silicon Valley Law Group’s CEO. “He has been serving sophisticated Silicon Valley businesses and executives for over twenty years which complements our existing practice and broadens the services we can offer our clients.”

Mr. Stebbins was previously a partner with Tomlinson Zisko LLP in Palo Alto, and Bergeson, LLP in San Jose. He received his J.D. at Santa Clara University, where he was a member of the SCU Law Review. He received his A.B. from Stanford University .
